

Packing List for QSDS

Necessities

Each bedroom comes with a blanket and pillow, but you'll need your own sheet set for a twin bed (extra long sheets work best). You may want to bring an additional blanket as the suites are air-conditioned. A limited supply of extra blankets are available at the front desk.

You will also need your own bath towel, hand towel, washcloth and all toiletries.

Suggested items

Bedroom Amenities

- Hangers for clothing
- Alarm clock

Bathroom Amenities

- Bath mat
- Hairdryer
- Tissues

Kitchen Items

- Utensils for cooking/eating
- Microwaveable mug and plates/bowls
- Coffee maker (you can get prepared coffee in the minimart, cafe and QSDS dorm)
- Dish towels, soap
- Paper towels

Technology

- Ethernet cable for computer use in dormrooms
- Flashlight
- Extension cord

What to Wear

Plan to dress casually while at the symposium. Make sure you bring comfortable shoes. If you are attending the banquet you will want to bring something a little dressier. All rooms are air-conditioned, but the temperature will vary, so you may want to bring a sweater or sweatshirt as well as cooler layers.

June can be rainy in Columbus, so bring a jacket, small umbrella and dry shoes.

Class Materials

Refer to the class description for a complete list of materials needed for your class. A few other tools you may want to bring:

Clamp light

Basic sewing supplies

Olfa mat and cutter

Ruler

Miscellaneous

We host a postcard area outside the office. Bring a new postcard of your work since last year and turn it in to the office when you arrive. We will mount it for you. Bring two if you want both sides of the card be shown.
